Office Opened in Police Headquarters with Secretary Ziegler in Charge.

The Tire Rationing Committee, appointed last week by the Selectmen, has gotten its work under way with speed. At a meeting held Monday night it was decided to open an office in the police station, with Elmer Ziegler in charge as executive secretary. Mr. Ziegler is also executive secretary of the Civilian Defense Committee. It is expected that he will be able to do the work for both committees since the offices will adjoin each other.

The committee also appointed sixteen inspectors whose duty it will be to examine the tires and tubes of applicants for new tires. If the inspector finds that tires or tubes can be repaired so as to be safe for use he will certify this on the applicant's blank and the committee will unquestionably refuse to allow him to buy a new tire. The government.

Commonweal Club Buys $200 Defense Bond

Christmas Seal Returns Still Being Received

Although the annual Christmas Seal Campaign formally closed on Christmas day, returns from sales are still being received at headquarters. Several donors declared that in the Christmas rush they overlooked their returns for the Seals they had used.

"Here is part of my first paycheck of the New Year," wrote one. "I can't think of a better way to start the year anew."

It is not too late to pay for Christmas Seals any time this month.

Appeals to Rotary For Air Wardens

The Rotary club held its first meeting of the civilian defense series Wednesday noon at the Middlesex Sportsman's Association clubhouse. President Loren Marsh presided and Herbert Buttrick led the singing, with Ed Towne at the piano. The speaker, Joel W. Eastman, of the Speaker's Bureau for coordinating civilian defense, was introduced by Fire Chief Tierney.

The first portion of Mr. Eastman's stimulating address brought home more closely to the members and the large number of guests the possibility of an air raid from across the Atlantic. He made a forceful appeal for air wardens, a most necessary branch of civilian defense, particularly for places situated near Boston and the Watertown Arsenal. Broadly speaking, air wardens must protect property and minimize human and material losses. He outlined the many duties of the volunteers.

HAIL NEW YEAR AT THEATRICAL BALL

Ninety couples, representing a few members of the Arlington Friends of the Drama and many of their friends, hailed the advent of the New Year with the annual Theatrical Ball at Robbins Memorial Town Hall, festivities starting at ten on the eve of the new year and extending until three in the morning. And they were gay, too, in spite of a dubious present and a precarious future.

As was the case last year, the crowd was arranged at tables, cabaret style, at which very attractive canapés were served by a corps of waitresses all during the evening. In addition, supper was served in the corridor late in the evening, or rather early in the morning. At midnight the celebrators stood at attention while the orchestra, Arlington's own Regimentals, played the National Anthem and then all joined hands and voices in "Auld Lang Syne."

During one of the intermissions

WELCOME DAUGHTER AND GRANDCHILD FROM HONOLULU

Arlington High Graduate Served Coffee and Tended Wounded During Bombings. Washing Machine Baby's Bombproof.

Joy and relief were mingled in the welcome that Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Fitch gave their daughter, Dorice (Mrs. Irving Brackett) and their granddaughter, Dianne, on their arrival from Honolulu Tuesday night at the Fitch home, 66 Freeman street. After the bombing of Pearl Harbor they had a cable saying that their daughter, her husband, Lieut. Brackett, and baby were safe. They watched the passenger lists of the ships bringing evacuees from Hawaii but heard no more news until Sunday night, when a telegram from San Francisco said that their daughter and the baby were there. They expected them on Monday night but there was a delay in Chicago because the baby was sick—she is well now.

This is the first time the Fitches have seen their granddaughter, who was born in Honolulu February 11, 1941, and they find her "adorable" as her picture in yesterday morning's Boston Globe shows her to be.

When a bullet crashed through her apartment window the morning of the Pearl Harbor attack, Mrs. Brackett grabbed the baby, lifted out the inside mechanism of the washing machine and put the baby there. It made a perfect bomb proof and Dianne played there contentedly when the planes came over.

Mrs. Brackett, herself, was very busy. She tended the wounded and made coffee for the men, eking out her own supply from the vacant neighboring apartments, whose occupants had fled. She was ordered to leave at midnight and spent the next day and night with other women and children in a school where they slept on the floor.

Lieutenant Brackett, who is with the Army's Quartermaster Corps, was in the hospital at Schofield Field which adjoins Wheeler Field, when the attack came. He jumped out of bed and rushed to his post.

The doctor whom Mr. and Mrs. Fitch called Tuesday night said that Mrs. Brackett had suffered more from the terrible experiences than had the baby. He ordered rest for her. Naturally she is anxious about her husband, of whom she has heard nothing since he put her on the boat on Christmas Day.

She plans to stay in Arlington with her parents. She has many friends here—she was a member of the Arlington High School, class of '36—who will want to welcome her and hear of her experiences.

VOTE $150 TO UNITED WAR FUND

The New Year's meeting of the Arlington Woman's Club at the Robbins Memorial Town Hall on the afternoon of January 2, was a very fine beginning for 1942.

The afternoon program opened with the flag salute and a patriotic hymn, with two questions: "Are You a Book Buddy?" and "Have You a Blanket for Use in case of Hospital?" Then followed an informative presentation by Mrs. Philip Jameson of the "Greater Boston United War Fund", to which fund the club voted $150. The president, Mrs. Grady D. Feagan, then welcomed the special guests of the afternoon, the Americanization classes, and introduced Mrs. Stanley R. Kingman, who as program chairman of the club, presented Miss

THREE BOYS HURT WHILE AT PLAY

First Coasting and Skiing Accidents.

The first opportunity Arlington boys had to indulge in winter sports in their home town brought injuries to three of them.

Sunday morning, Mrs. Lois Durand of 33 Lombard road reported to the police that her son, Robert, aged twelve, was lying in the snow at Spy Pond field. Officer C. Scanlon was sent to the field with the ambulance, assisted by Officers White, Hourihan, Scanlon and Keaney. The boy was taken to Symmes Hospital, where it was found that he had fractured his left leg while skiing.

Ten-year-old Allen Pinksen of 181 Forest street had his left arm fractured Monday night in a coasting accident. He was coasting in the vicinity of Aerial and Forest streets and was in collision with a car driven by George W. Bezanon of Winchester. He was treated by Dr. Feeley.

1—For each Axis ship sunk by Uncle Sam's forces, buy defense stamps: $5 for a battleship, $4 for a carrier, $3 for a cruiser, $2 for a destroyer, $1 for a submarine and 50 cents for other Axis ships.

2—Score only ships officially recognized in government communications.

3—Sign pledge and mail to B. Tere, Ldg. Gear Group, Curtiss-Wright plant, Buffalo. This is not required, but is requested so an estimate may be made of the number of participants.

4—Torpedo should be an extra in your planned buying of Defense Stamps.

Boston Girl at Head of

"Mr. & Mrs. North" Cast

Lois Hall, an Auburndale girl, graduate of Radcliffe and former member of the Harvard Dramatic Club, is co-featured with Owen Davis, Jr., son of the dean of American playwrights, in the mystery comedy entitled "Mr. and Mrs. North" which is at the Plymouth Theatre, Boston, for a limited engagement of two weeks, having opened on Monday evening.

"Mr. and Mrs. North" is a play founded on the stories by Frances and Richard Lockridge, written in a humorous vein, which appeared in the New Yorker Magazine, and were later developed into a detective novel under the title of "The Norths Meet Murder."

The novel and short stories were dramatized by Owen Davis, Sr., and the play so captured the fancy of Broadway theatre-goers last season that the piece remained at the Belasco Theatre there from midwinter to summertime.

The play comes to us with good reports as to its quality as entertainment. It has been described as a merger of marital trivia and murder, which begins when a suave sleuth and a dumb-cluck detective invade the usually placid home of the Norths in New York's Greenwich Village, and attempt to solve a homicide which has been committed during the absence of the tenants.

All that the Norths know is that when they returned to their apartment after a week-end visit out of town, they discovered the body of a dead man in the closet where they usually kept their spare bottle of gin for cocktail making. The police first accuse one and then the other of the friends of the Norths, but finally it is Mrs. North, in her more or less scatterbrained fashion, who uncovers the real culprit.

In addition to Miss Hall and Mr. Davis, Jr., those who will be seen in the cast include Coburn Goodwin, Virginia Barton, Ross Hertz, Harold J. Stone, Blair Davies, Don Haggerty, Gerry Carr, Ernest Woodward, Bettina Prescott, Joseph Sullivan, Horace Cooper, Tom Tempest, Russell Morrison, Leonard Grimes and others. Matinees will be given on Thursdays and Saturdays.

Heights Baptist Church
Secures Noted Evangelist

The Arlington Heights Baptist church has voted unanimously to invite Evangelist Anthony Zeoli, outstanding national preacher, to conduct a series of meetings for the church, according to an announcement by the pastor, Rev. Walter E. Bridge. Mr. Zeoli is known to thousands as "The Walking Bible" and is famed for his astonishing knowledge of the Bible and his ability to quote Scripture from memory. Subsequent to his conversion behind the walls of a penitentiary and his preparation for the Gospel ministry, this dynamic and convincing teacher has been called upon to preach in the largest churches on the American continent, and has been instrumental in converting thousands.

In addition to the board of deacons, the pastor has appointed the following committees for the forthcoming revival campaign: Walter N. MacFarlane, prayer meetings; Burris E. Prest, ushering; Lyndon R. Goodwin, finance; Benjamin J. Gott, music; Josiah W. Hovey, entertainment; Mrs. A. K. MacIver, personal work, and Bertram J. Perkins, publicity. A public address system is being installed in the lower auditorium of the church to care for the overflow crowds.

Ten Past Presidents

At Men's Class Sunday

Ten past presidents attended the Men's Class session at the First Baptist church last Sunday. President Albert S. Brown greeted them for the class and Past President John A. Easton paid tribute to the memory of the two deceased past presidents, Fred Ennis and Harrison A. Evans. Lyndon Goodwin, Class president, 1913-1915, led a short devotional service. Dr. Grady D. Feagan, teacher of the Class for the last fourteen years, addressed the men. David B. Richardson and Harry Doherty were over from Stoneham to visit.

Next Sunday, Rev. H. L. Saunderson will bring the message of the day.

Next Tuesday comes the monthly class social at which time the men will hear Rev. Ralph W. Decker of Dorchester on European conditions. Dr. Decker is well versed on his subject by virtue of time spent studying abroad prior to the outbreak of the war.

Sunday morning, January 18th, the men will meet at 8 o'clock in the morning at the church for a communion breakfast service.

OUR EMPLOYEES
AND

19 42

A YEAR AGO companies in the New England Power system, in outlining their policy of preparedness as a part of the country's National Defense program, placed particular emphasis upon the important part employees would play in this patriotic effort.

THIS YEAR, with eighteen or twenty men needed in defense industries to back up each fighting man in Uncle Sam's forces and with our country in a state of war against ruthless and treacherous aggressors, we have a deep satisfaction in knowing that —

1. Our employees are skillful, well-trained men and women, many of whom have spent the greater part of their lives in our service.
2. Our employees know their jobs thoroughly and have a deep sense of responsibility as to their parts in the National Defense Program.
3. The physical properties these employees operate are in good order.
4. Our employees, as soldiers of industry, have a vitally important job in supplying indispensable materials to the armed forces of our country.

As their modest contribution in an America that is united and determined, our employees dedicate their every effort to the preservation of the ideals of this great democracy!

"Porgy and Bess" Makes Boston Theatre History

A new chapter in Boston Theatre history was added last Monday evening, December 29, when Cheryl Crawford presented a revival of George Gershwin's immortal folk musical, "Porgy and Bess", at the Shubert Theatre, Boston, prior to its presentation on Broadway, New York. Considerable anticipation awaited Monday night's performance but scarcely did even the producers themselves expect the unprecedented critical and audience acclaim which it received and which today confirms this great musical as the outstanding artistic and box-office attraction of the current season. When seven out of seven critics placed this as a theatre-goer's "must", that is indeed enough.

Cheryl Crawford who, incidentally, is the only successful woman producer on Broadway, has been justified in her great efforts to re-assemble the original company, under the conductorship of the internationally celebrated director, Alexander Smallens, who, it will be remembered, was chosen by Gershwin himself to conduct the original production. It is also important to note that the present production includes the late George Gershwin's own revisions and improvements which he planned to incorporate in a revival of this great American folk musical.

The original cast, with the exception of two members, is complete, and it is interesting to note that one of the recent additions was singled out by the critics for special notice. As Helen Eager of the Boston Traveler, reported, "Those who missed 'Porgy and Bess' now have a chance to revel in one of the richest theatrical experiences of a lifetime."

Out-of-town audiences will be happy to learn that the box-office has been given special instructions to give precedence to all mail reservations so that out-of-town patrons may be assured of equal opportunities with Boston audiences in securing choice locations. Incidentally, good seats for all performances may be procured at the box-office of the Shubert Theatre. It is advisable that you send your reservations immediately. In addition to regular evening performances, there will be two matinees each week on Wednesday and Saturday at 2:15 o'clock.

Porgy and Bess Revival An Artistic Success

Cheryl Crawford's revival of George Gershwin's immortal American folk musical, "Porgy and Bess", now playing at the Shubert Theatre in Boston, has, during its first week, established itself as this season's outstanding box office and artistic success. Since the first night, when seven out of seven critics acclaimed it as the highlight of the 1941 season, the box office of the Shubert Theatre has been making history and as Helen Eager of the Boston Traveler says, "Those who missed 'Porgy and Bess' now have a chance to revel in one of the richest theatrical experiences of a lifetime."

If one were to total the critics' comments on this immortal musical which is presented by Miss Crawford with the entire original cast with the exception of two, it would be "a must on every theatre-goer's calendar." As Alexander Williams of the Boston Herald says, "The performance was most spirited, with many of the first cast again participating notably."

Furthermore, to complete the picture, Alexander Smallens, the internationally famous Russian conductor, who led the orchestra in the original production, is again directing.

The management wishes to assure the theatre-going public that in spite of the unprecedented sale, excellent seats may be secured for all performances at the box office of the Shubert Theatre.

FOUR QUICK GOALS GIVE H. S. TIE WITH STONEHAM

Four goals made in less than five minutes in the second period gave the Red and Gray pucksters a tie in the game played against Stoneham in the Arena Wednesday afternoon of last week.

In the first period Guy Wallace made two goals for Stoneham to Arlington's blank. Then, in the second, Ralph Cooley went down the right lane, sent goalie Joe Connors sprawling to make a good save. The rubber bounced to the left and Bronnie Beardsley jammed it in. Two minutes later Arlington ganged up on Connors, who made two sensational saves, but couldn't stop a third poke from Ed Bennett.

Jackie Cunha set up the third tally when he skimmed the rubber to the crease corner just in time for Ed Ritchie to connect with a hair-trigger shot. No. 4 was the only unusual tally. John Nolan was in the center zone, but he stepped over the blue line to intercept the rubber and looped it back. A defenseman waved at it, but the puck soared majestically until it came to a bulging stop in the drapes.

Stoneham got back into the game early in the third period. Roy Fowler broke his stick and skated over to the bench for a replacement. One of his mates tossed a club to him, and a penalty and penalty shot were promptly called.

Wallace made good on the free shot, ripping the rubber into the right corner just inside the post. Four minutes later Bill Doherty tied it up when he skidded a shot along the ice from directly in front of the cage.

The summary:

Arlington (4)—g. Bevins; rd. Middleton; ld. Nolan; c. Beardsley; rw. Fowler; lw. Cooley.

Stoneham (4)—g. Downes; rd. Kerrigan; ld. Allin; c. Wallace; rw. Freeman; lw. Cronin.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts. LAND COURT. ENCUMBRANCE.

PHILIP A. McDONALD AND MARY E. McDONALD, HUSBAND AND WIFE, OF ARLINGTON, MIDDLESEX COUNTY, MASSACHUSETTS, PETITIONERS.

1. That they are seized and possessed as tenants by the entirety of the equity of redemption subject to a mortgage to the Medford Savings Bank, dated November 24, 1941, recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds on November 24, 1941, of the following-described real estate:

A certain parcel of land, with the buildings thereon, situated and known as 6 and 8 Whittemore Street in said Arlington, being shown as lot numbered 2 on a plan entitled "Plan of Land in Arlington, Massachusetts, owned by Lucy H. Deering, dated April 4, 1920, drawn by J. M. Keane, Civil Engineer, recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book of Plans 235, Plan 34, and bounded:

Northwesterly by Whittemore Street, sixty-one (61) feet;

Northeasterly by lot numbered 1 shown on said plan, seventy-seven and 80/100 (77.80) feet;

Southeasterly by land now or formerly owned by said Deering, sixty-one and 08/100 (61.08) feet; and Southwesterly by lot numbered 3 on said plan, seventy-seven and 50/100 (77.50) feet.

Containing 4737 square feet.

Subject to and with the benefit of all rights and interests therein, including all reservations and rights in a certain concrete sidewalk referred to and contained in a deed from said Deering to Martin Walsh, dated May 27, 1922, recorded with said Deeds, Book 249, Page 406.

Said premises are also subject to and with the benefit of restrictions of record, if any, so far as now in force and applicable.

That they obtained their title to said premises by a deed from Martin J. Walsh, et al, dated October 14, 1941 and recorded with said Deeds on November 24, 1941.

That the record title of a small part of said land is encumbered by an undischarged mortgage, known as and by Lucy H. Deering to Ellen M. Braley to secure the payment of Seventy-five hundred (7500) Dollars, dated December 19, 1940, recorded with said Deeds, Book 284, Page 2, which by the condition was to be void on the payment in five (5) years from its date with interest semi-annually in the sum of five (5) per cent on Twenty-five hundred (2500) Dollars and six (6) per cent on Five thousand (5000) Dollars, thereafter in said Registry an instrument purporting to be a discharge of said mortgage, which, from the record thereof, is signed by Charles M. Braley of Kansas City, in the State of Missouri, as administrator of the estate of Ellen M. Braley, the mortgagee; that the record of said instrument shows a date of December 24, 1941 and it is recorded on December 24, 1941 in Book 3238, Page 199; that the petitioners have been unable to discover the Court in which the said Charles M. Braley was appointed such administrator and in which the record of such appointment is shown, and the failure so to discover any record of his appointment as such administrator, allege that the said Charles M. Braley was never appointed such administrator and that said instrument was of no force and effect as binding upon the personal representative of the said Ellen M. Braley.

4. That the petitioners are informed and believe and therefore allege that Ellen M. Braley, the mortgagee in said mortgage, was the mother of the said Lucy H. Deering, the mortgagor who is sometimes known as Lucy B. Deering and Lucy Braley Deering, and of the said Charles M. Braley; that the said Ellen M. Braley died in said Arlington on April 16, 1912 and had at her death her domicile in Northfield in the State of Vermont; that the said Lucy H. Deering and the said Charles M. Braley were the only surviving children of the said Ellen M. Braley and that no issue or descendant of any other child or children of the said Ellen M. Braley was living at the decease of the said Ellen M. Braley and she was at that time a widow.

5. That said instrument referred to in paragraph 3 executed by the said Charles M. Braley as such administrator acknowledge full payment and satisfaction of the mortgage referred to in said paragraph 3.

6. That the petitioners claim title to said premises as set out in the first paragraph of this petition, to wit: one James H. Willoughby of said Arlington to whom said Lucy H. Deering deeded the same by a deed dated May 27, 1922, recorded with said Deeds, Book 249, Page 406, and thereby the said Lucy H. Deering deeded said premises free and discharged of all encumbrances except only existing restrictions of record, taxes for the year 1920, and easement or taking for sewer purposes and certain reservations regarding the concrete walk as therein referred to.

7. That the condition of said mortgage by its proviso was to be performed on or about December 19, 1905; that the petitioners and all others through whom the petitioners claim title to said land have been in uninterrupted possession of said premises claiming title hereto free and discharged of said mortgage for a period exceeding twenty years, to wit, from December 29, 1914, the date on which the mortgage herein referred to was recorded, and May 1, 1920, the date on which the said James H. Willoughby became the owner of said premises.

8. That your petitioners are informed and believe and so allege that no payment on account of the debt secured by said mortgage has been made for a period of twenty years prior to the filing thereof and that no payment and acknowledgement of said debt has been made since December 24, 1941, and no other act or thing has been taken or done in recognition of the existence of said mortgage.

Wherefore the petitioners pray that after such notice as the Court orders, the Court may enter a decree in respect to said mortgage and the estate and possession of the petitioners and those under whom they claim as is by the Statute for such cases made and provided and for such further orders and relief as are proper.

"WILFUL WASTE MAKES WOEFUL WANT"

New England thrift may again become a foremost virtue—"Use it up. Make it do". New England attics, the few that are left, may play their part in defense. Youngsters today may be taught the rhyme which was familiar to those of a past generation—

*I will not throw upon the floor
The bread I cannot eat
For many a little hungry one
Would think it quite a treat.
For wilful waste makes woeful want
And I may live to say
"Oh, how I wish I had the bread
"I one day threw away."*

Certainly we must, as individuals, use all our resources with care. If we discard clothing before it is worn out, we should see that it reaches someone who can make use of it. If we know no one personally who needs it or have no pet charity, the British War Relief is always glad to get it.

Garbage cans should not be filled to overflowing. Rather, we should utilize the leftovers.

Last Saturday when we found that there was no sugar in the store where we traded, nor in many others, we were reminded of the days of the first World War. It wasn't serious, since practically all of us found some store—usually not in the merchandising centers—where at least a small quantity could be purchased, and early this week supplies had been replenished.

The reason we couldn't buy sugar Saturday wasn't a sugar shortage. It was that some consumers had gotten panicky—and piggish—and had bought in far larger quantities than usual. A customer who ordinarily purchased five pounds went out with twenty or thirty, while a ten pound consumer carried off fifty or sixty pounds.

If we use sugar—and other commodities—with care and buy only as we need, no one need fear a shortage of food. If we rush in and buy in large quantities, there may be two unfortunate results—prices may be forced up and temporary shortages may occur. This may be because of difficulties in transportation as well as because supplies are insufficient.

The same is true of clothes. If we buy only the clothes and shoes we need and treat them carefully we should be well clothed for "the duration."

IF YOU REACHED FOR A BOOK

"Suppose", said the librarian, "you should reach for a book, and there wasn't any".

For most of us that would be a major calamity. Yet it is what is happening to thousands of boys in the United States service.

Those boys, like the rest of us, have been taught to read. Teachers have striven to give them an appreciation of good literature. They have learned to look to books both for information and recreation. They are conditioned to homes where books, magazines and newspapers are plentiful. They have lived in towns where public libraries supplied them with reading of all kinds. Always before when they reached for a book, the book was there.

To be able to use books intelligently, whether to learn about the new and exciting things the world of today has to offer or to escape from that world when it becomes too insistent into fictitious adventure and romance or to distant and little known countries, is a priceless gift. It is the gift that has become useless to the boys in many camps because there are no books.

Perhaps it is because librarians as a class realize more than others how empty a place is left in our lives when books are gone, that they have been chosen to conduct the National Defense Book Campaign which starts next Monday. In Arlington the librarian of Robbins Library, Mrs. Spofford, is in charge of the campaign.

Arlington citizens have always appreciated the need for books. Ours was one of the first libraries in the state—the battle for the honor of being the very first still wages. They have responded generously to past appeals for books. Perhaps our book shelves have been thoroughly weeded out. If that is so, the time has come to give the books that we hate to part with. The boys in the army and navy are giving more than books. If one of our loved volumes can fill their spare time entertainingly and profitably, let's give it to them.

The goal for the country is ten million books. Let us do our part toward reaching it.

GOOD LISTENING

Strategically important, according to Henry W. Harris in the Globe, is the President's promise of a tremendous increase in the building of merchant ships. It is these ships which carry food and munitions to distant battlefields.

The speech made good listening for the allied nations. How will it sound to the Axis powers?

Sixty-Five Years Ago This Week

Severe Storm.—New Year's Day, which opened so brightly, and gave such promise of pleasant weather, ended with a storm, which is likely to be remembered for some time, as its results lie piled in great heaps in every direction, and travel has been sadly impeded and inconvenient all the week.

Resigned.—Rev. George W. Cutter has resigned his position as pastor of the First Congregational (Unitarian) church. There will be a meeting of the church and parish next Monday evening, to take action in regard to the matter. We understand Mr. Cutter will locate in Buffalo, N. Y., as the pastor of the Unitarian church of that city at a salary of $3,500.

Record of the Year.—We are indebted to Chief of Police John H. Hartwell, for the following items in regard to his department, which will be found interesting: Whole number of arrests, 79; males, 69; females, 10; increase of arrests over last year, 19; assault and battery, 33; drunkenness, 23; malicious mischief, 3; setting fires, 1; larceny, 3; bodily harm, 1; illegal keeping of liquors, 4; disturbing the peace, 2; keeping unlicensed dogs, 5; other arrests, 4.

Fifty Years Ago This Week

The Arlington National Bank commenced business operations on Saturday evening of last week, opening under auspicious circumstance, with the exception of the weather which was decidedly disagreeable and stormy. The room occupied is in the Savings Bank building, is finely located and has been thoroughly renovated and fitted up for the purpose which it is to serve.

Mrs. Theo D. Dupee gave a charming lunch party last Friday afternoon, January 1st, in honor of her guest, Miss Mae Mooers, of Milwaukee. Mrs. Dupee graciously presided at the head of the table, skilfully directing the service of the various courses, and entertaining her young lady guests with the ease of the hostess observant of the duties of her position.

The sidewalks were promptly broken out after the snow storm on Wednesday, by men under the direction of Supt. Kimball.

Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald, of Walnut street, were the patrons for a very successful and enjoyable masquerade leap-year party given in Union Hall, Arlington Heights, on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Durgin celebrated their wedding anniversary on New Year's eve with a delightful evening party, made up principally of relatives.

Rev. M. K. Schermerhorn, the new rector of St. John's Episcopal church, has taken up his residence at Mrs. Varney's on Maple street.

Twenty-Five Years Ago This Week

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Kidder, of Addison street, observed their 38th wedding anniversary, which was on New Year's eve, with a quiet dinner party, in which relatives and a few of the couple's old-time friends participated.

The twelfth birthday of Miss Margaret Vaughn which was on New Year's day, was celebrated by her with six other girl friends, who were chaperoned by Mrs. Vaughn, with a luncheon in Boston and then to the matinee at the Hollis Street Theatre to see "Polly Anna."

Rev. Warren N. Bixby, recently ordained and appointed pastor of the Episcopal Mission at East Arlington, and Miss Marion M. Furness of Haverhill, on January 1, by Rev. James Malcolm Smith, assisted by Rev. William W. Love of Cambridge, for whom the bride was formerly secretary.

At the close of a meeting on December 22 in G. A. R. Hall, by St. Agnes' Court, Daughters of Isabella, a playlet, "The Suffragette Convention", was presented, in charge of Mrs. Emma L. Bevans, director of the dramatic class of the court. Miss Margaret Toland presided. The antis were Miss May Connor, Miss Rosella Dacey, Miss May Scannell, Miss Anna Scannell, and Miss Elizabeth Casey; the suffragettes were Miss Agnes Preston, Miss Lucy Neilan, Miss Frances Connor, Miss Frances Ahern, and Miss Margaret Murphy.

The Arlington Boat Club's "Annual" was given in Robbins Memorial Town Hall on the evening of December 29. It took the form of a promenade concert and dance and was even more of a success than its predecessors. The famous Cadet Band furnished the music and contributed its full share to the success we have spoken of, but Prest. Roger W. Homer and his assistants, Hobart E. Cousens and George H. Rice, the entertainment committee, are entitled to the lion's share of credit.

Our own objectives are clear: the objective of smashing the militarism imposed by war lords upon their enslaved peoples—the objective of establishing and securing freedom of speech, freedom of religion, freedom from want and freedom from fear everywhere in the world.

We have already tasted defeat. We may suffer further setbacks. We must face the fact of a hard war, a long war, a bloody war, a costly war.

Mrs. George Nightingale of 50 Waldo road, one of the British War Relief workers, received the following letter from a grateful recipient of clothing.

"Fron",
Llangefni,
Anglesey,
North Wales.
30-11-41

Dear Mrs. Nightingale:

Your note and coin were found in the pocket of a dress which came with other clothing to our W.V.S. Depot. We thought that you might like to know that the dress you have made has arrived safely and will be much appreciated by a little evacuee who has been bombed out of her home.

The evacuees we have in this area are mostly from the Liverpool area. Some are getting over the terrible experiences that they had last winter. They have been sent here after exceptionally heavy raids on their city when most of them lost their homes. I am glad to say that they have recovered after weeks of rest in the country.

You may be interested to hear how the clothing is being distributed. I am writing from the Anglesey County Depot. We receive the clothing from a Regional Depot delivered by voluntary workers using a W.V.S. van. The clothing is checked and arranged in sections in our Depot here. The country has ten centre organizers in various parts of the island and we take the clothing out to the centres on a trailer attached to the back of the car. A certain amount of clothing is thus deposited at suitable places from which it can be easily distributed in the event of raids. When the evacuees arrive they are taken to Rest Centres where they stay for two or three nights until billets are found for them. We find that our greatest need is for underwear such as vests, knickers and nightwear.

We are very grateful to you all in America for all you have sent us and for your kind thoughts and sympathy. You have thought of everything we might need in an emergency. I can assure you the garments are greatly appreciated and if you could see the children wearing your lovely dresses and jerseys I know that you would feel rewarded for the hours you have spent making them.

We should be glad if you would

Many Attend Services of Union Christian Crusade

The Union Christian Crusade, in which the two churches, Calvary Methodist and Trinity Baptist, are united, has entered its second week with fine attendance and inspiring services. Dr. Wesley G. Huber has been exceedingly effective as the preacher, and Rev. W. D. Turkington has won everyone by his genial personality and his able work as song leader, trumpeter, and soloist.

The meetings this week are at Trinity Baptist church at 7:45 p. m. On Friday night there will be a great Youth Night service, which all young people of this region are urged to attend. On Sunday morning Dr. Huber will preach at Calvary Methodist and Mr. Turkington at Trinity Baptist. A great final union service on Sunday evening will bring the crusade to a conclusion. The services are for the benefit of all.

Missionary Month at First Baptist Church

January is to be Missionary Month at the First Baptist church. All the departments of the Church School, the young people's organizations, and the church as a whole are going to learn something of what Baptists are doing, and have done for America along home mission lines. The gospel of Christ was carried by early Baptist missionaries, along with those of other denominations, out to the western frontiers in the covered wagon days, and from that day to this consecrated workers in our teeming cities and through the vast rural sections of the country, have carried on the work of making America truly the land of equal opportunity for all.

The four remaining Friday nights in the prayer meetings, will be given over to the missionary theme. This week, January 9th, the Church Missionary Committee will have charge of the meeting, with different members of the committee taking part in the worship service, which will be followed by a missionary quiz. As a climax to the month of missions throughout the church, on the evening of Sunday, January 25th, an auditorium service will be held, with an excellent outside speaker, and other missionary features, including an exhibit of the craft work done during the month by the various departments of the church school.

UNIVERSALIST NEWS

Mrs. Robert Cummins, president of the Friendship Study Group which was formerly the Mission Circle department of the Samaritan Society, conducted last Monday the first of a series of monthly meetings for study of the Old Testament.

"The Educational Plan of Goddard College" will be the subject of a talk before members of the Samaritan Society Monday, January 19. Located at Plainfield, Vt., this Universalist school is operated in accord with the most advanced educational principles.

Because the regular date of the annual meeting of the First Universalist Society January 15 coincides with guest night of the Woman's Club, the trustees have arranged a postponement until Saturday, January 17, at 7:30 p. m., preceded by a baked bean supper at 6 p. m.

The well wishes of the congregation were given after the service last Sunday to Edgar Hunt, 16 Swan street, and Robert Brown, 382 Massachusetts avenue, who have enlisted in the Coast Guard and expect to be stationed on Gallops Island in Boston Harbor.

Other young men of this parish in the service include Robert Bott at Camp Edwards, David Bott at Aberdeen, Maryland, and Richard Heath at the naval training school in Dearborn, Michigan.

Under the auspices of the Fair Committee the 101st birthday anniversary of the church will be celebrated Friday, January 23, with a pancake supper and the showing of a fascinating colored, sound movie. Robert A. Moore, chairman of the committee, has announced the details in the current church bulletin.

The late Otis A. Skinner, famed actor, was a nephew of Rev. Otis A. Skinner, who preached occasionally for the Universalists of West Cambridge prior to the formal organization of the present Society in 1840.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur I. Andrews are spending the winter at the Woodbridge Hotel in Somerville.

Members of the Patterson Fellowship will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bradbury Huff at their home in Newton Highlands next Wednesday evening on the occasion of the annual meeting.

"Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Sunday, January 11, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Golden Text is: "Let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth" (I Corinthians 5:8). Other Bible citations include: "And this is his commandment. That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment. And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us" (I John 3:23, 24).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Our heavenly Father, divine Love, demands that all men should follow the example of our Master and his apostles and not merely worship his personality. . . . Like our Master, we must depart from material sense into the spiritual sense of being" (pp. 40, 41).

Shirley Simes in "Dances of Many Moods" and her mother, Mrs. Virginia Simes, as narrator and accompanist.

Mrs. Simes' interpretations before each dance, helped the audience to understand the real meaning of the dance. Whether the dance showed hesitating youth, gay spring, the perishable orchid, or mischievous bed-time pranks; arrogant Moroccan, Portuguese, Mexican, the ancient Egyptian dances or the masque of life, the audience was prepared to enter into the mood. The pantomimes of the "Gay Nineties" and the "Chore-Boy's Holiday" gave the light, fun-provoking element needed.

The program was very artistic and varied, of genuine refinement, with beautiful, colorful costumes.

when the Regimentals had left the platform, one of the volunteer private entertainers in leaving the stage toppled over the balustrade in front of the footlights onto Mrs. Leonard Wood, who was seated at a table, knocking her unconscious for several minutes. She was attended by Dr. Bowlby.

The hall was most effectively decorated by Anne Kennedy and her crew of volunteers by the lavish use of blue, lemon and white streamers, which formed a friendly roof under which the dancers whirled, and hundreds of balloons in all the pastel shades. Attention was focused on the stage on which a blue drop studded with gold and silver stars backed the orchestra in their brilliant red uniforms. In the center was a huge clock, whose hands indicated the hour of celebration, and over all was arched the legend, "Happy New Year."

Everyone present was unstinting in praise of the music and all the other arrangements evolved by Ray H. Wallace and Edward W. Center, who were co-chairmen of the ball committee. Assisting them were Mrs. David R. Kennedy, who handled reservations; Mrs. Wallace, Anne Kennedy, Beatrice M. Ring and W. Parker Wood.

Install New Officers Of Arlington Grange

Arlington Grange held its 18th installation of officers New Year's night, before an overflowing audience. It was one of the most impressive that the organization has had. The installing officer, Katherine Brown McCarron, was the officer when the Grange was instituted. Edward Connors, her assistant, created wonderful lighting effects. Her staff was composed of past Grange Masters. The highlight of the installation was the flag ceremony. Each officer carried a small silk American flag. At the altar where colors were presented, the officers-elect stood at attention with flags raised to the colors of the Grange. After this the Master-elect, Florence M. Bruce of Lexington gave her master's oath in a distinct and clear voice.

After the officers had received their sashes, the new master was the recipient of flowers from her mother, Mrs. Florence C. Mann of Lexington and from the officers and members of Ida F. Butler Rebekah Lodge, of which she is Noble Grand, and a large bouquet of roses from her chaplain and lecturer. A gavel from the officers was presented to her. Telegrams of congratulations were received from the Master of Watertown Grange and her husband, who is a warrant officer at the Submarine Base in New London, Conn. A silver gift from her installing officer was also presented. At the roll call of Granges it was noticed there were eight present masters of various granges and 25 past masters in the hall. Miss Elsie Leslie, past master of Arlington Grange, received a beautiful bouquet of flowers from the officers and members of the Grange, in appreciation of her work as master.

ment is insisting that old rubber be used up before new is purchased, even if the applicant is eligible as a purchaser.

Application blanks are available at the post office, the police station and all inspection stations. The board urges any would-be applicant to read the eligibility classification on the back of the form before filling it out, to make sure he is among those eligible.

Unprejudiced Committee

The office is open from nine in the morning to five in the afternoon daily and the secretary can be seen there. The board meets Monday and Tuesday evenings from eight to nine and can be seen then. The members of the board, in compliance with the request of the state commissioner, have no interest in the sale of tires, nor in Arlington business of any kind. This means that they will be unprejudiced in the rationing of other merchandise if this becomes necessary.

The chairman, Howard E. Cousins, is with Lockwood Greene, Engineers in Boston. Milton Estabrook is manager of the Elmwood Garage in Newton and Henry J. O'Reilly, the third member, is with a Boston insurance firm.

Arlington's quota for January is twenty-eight tires and twenty-four tubes for passenger cars and thirty-six tires and thirty tubes for trucks. Twenty-five per cent of these can be allotted the first week, up to fifty per cent by the end of the second, seventy-five by the end of the third and all of them by the end of the month. Applications granted for tires and tubes must be published each week in the local papers and posted on the bulletin board at the Town Hall.

Tires allotted to Arlington are for Arlington residents only. Already Mr. Ziegler has had requests for tires from residents of other places who explained that they traded with Arlington concerns and thought they should be able to buy tires here. These requests he was obliged to refuse.
